

Malawi - Country Program Highlights
2008
Agriculture	10,803 participants Crop diversity has improved with the planting of cassava and sweet potatoes. Small animal husbandry is also increasing. Use of compost manure is now widely used among participants. 12 community grain banks are functioning. 15 treadle pumps are in use.
Health	2517 participants Besides community health lessons, children under five years of age are monitored as are their mothers. Those at risk are given support, education and high protein supplements.
Literacy	4100 participants All participants moved through Level 1 literacy and passed Level 2.